

Fine Lines

What meaning does the Fort Wayne Artists Guild hold for you? I can give you a history, read to you from the by-laws and quote the mission statement, but what is it to you? We are blessed to have the opportunity to bask in the fellowship of others with a passion for art. Whether you came to learn, teach, share, cajole, or simply enjoy being a member, we are an inclusive group that will support you through all.

I have been a member for about seven years and the bottom line is, I am a better artist for joining this organization. But my life as an artist is a fuller, more meaningful experience with great friends, mentors and mentees because I am a member. I started the year asking for more volunteers and more help with activities. This included more participation in planned events and I am elated at the response we have received.

We do have many new faces amongst us and I implore some of the more seasoned members to remember their experience of when they first started. Personally, I was afraid to talk to anyone. So maybe walk up and start a conversation with a new member and you may possibly meet a lifelong friend with shared interests. And if you have been around awhile, consider inviting a new member out to lunch and bring them into the fold so to speak. We have much to offer as an organization but what we also uniquely have, is a true FELLOWSHIP OF ARTISTS!

John

Next Meeting

Wednesday, March 15, 2017
6:30pm at Concordia High School

Program

Back by popular demand, Fort Wayne artist, Nazar Harran, will be demonstrating painting ABSTRACTS including focusing on the importance of good composition and design.

Nazar is currently represented by galleries in Colorado, Phoenix, Atlanta and Nashville. He graduated in 1994 with a fine arts degree from Baghdad University. He studied graphic art and design at Northampton Community College in Pennsylvania.

March painting challenge

Just in case John Kelty's demonstration at the February meeting made "quick draw" painting look easy, this month's challenge is to try it yourself! Set the timer and paint anything for 2 hours. Please bring to the March meeting to share, maybe unfinished. Hints, prepare everything in advance including pre color mixing, paint small, and choose a subject and the medium you are most comfortable with.

Making Improvements!

Often Guild members wonder what their dues are used for. Next month we'll provide a fuller list, but here's a current example of actions to improve our meetings.

Recently FWAG purchased a wireless microphone and speaker to make it easier for people to hear program presenters. In addition, we are planning to buy an Apple TV unit and a tripod with an attachment that holds either an iPad or an iPhone.
With this, we can televise demonstrations as they are being done on the two large flatscreen televisions and also record them to possibly share later.

Tips, Tricks, & Techniques

Linda Hall suggested we begin an advice column wherein members may submit art related questions and in turn, we will seek answers from other members.
Think, "Dear Abby" but in this case, we're all Abby. So email your questions to fwagnewsletters@gmail.com and I will post them in the newsletter, and await a response from you, then post the answer the next month.

As an example, here's the first question, already asked and answered. I was interested in making giclée prints of one of my paintings but imagined it to be a complex process. Linda Galloway, having crossed that bridge already, suggested using ARC Document Solutions on Fernhill Ave. They made it easy, offering a wide range of printing surfaces. I opted for the heavy watercolor paper but Linda prefers a canvas type surface. To protect the canvas from water damage, it was suggested to glaze the print with Minwax Polycrylic Protective Finish. I was able to get plastic sleeves and fitted foam board backing from Creative Framing.

* FWAG is not endorsing one business or product over others, just sharing tips and experiences. Most of us also like to "keep it local".

Carolyn E. Lewis, OPA - Workshop

Sponsored by the Fort Wayne Artist Guild

This year our instructor for the 2017 Ventures in Creativity workshop is Carolyn Lewis. "Capturing the mood of the moment and the effect of light is an important goal in my work." www.lewisstudio.com

Study with Carolyn and capture the adventures of plein air painting colorful landscapes in the Fort Wayne area. Discover how painting from life helps us to see and observe the effects of light and atmosphere. Learn how to simplify your subject while painting more quickly and accurately, with special attention placed on learning to see masses, as opposed to line, and form, rather than detail. Carolyn will help you develop creative, painterly paintings with clean, rich color, mood, and dynamic compositions. There will be group critiques at the end of each day.

This workshop is open to artists of all levels. Carolyn will be working in oils, however, artists may work in the medium of their choice that they are comfortable using. Whether you are a novice just learning to mix color, or a professional needing advanced problem solving, Carolyn's individualized instruction will address needs at your level and push you to the next step in your personal development

She is the author of Land and Light Workshop, Painting Mood and Atmosphere in Oils by North Light Books, and an accompanying video/DVD entitled Painting Mood and Atmosphere in Oils by Teaching Art, Ltd.

Judge: "Capturing the mood of the moment and the effect of light is an important goal in my work." -
Carolyn E. Lewis

A commendable quality of Lewis' work is the feeling one experiences of actually being in the scene while viewing her strongly designed landscapes. Lewis continues, "...but most of all, I enjoy the process of creating art and communicating the atmosphere and drama of my subject."

The art of Carolyn Lewis is inspired by nature, wildlife, and people. It is sensitive without being overly sentimental. Her commissioned portraits of individuals and animals, and her powerful landscapes, are steadily gaining acclaim in national and international art circles.

Her awards and honors are many. She has taught classes and workshops for 30 years in the US and abroad.
