

Fine Lines

October greetings!

It's officially fall and our Guild year is off to a great start. We had a wonderful turnout last month and I anticipate as many or more this time. I am eager to watch Jon Detweiler show us how he creates with oil sticks. I find them intriguing.

By now you have received notice that our meeting place has changed. I hope to see you all at the downtown library where there is a secure underground parking lot that is very close to our meeting room. There will be a sign to show the way.

Come and be encouraged in your artistic endeavors!

Barb Yoder

"Indian Summer" by Jon Detweiler

The Next FWAG Meeting will be Wednesday, October 18, 2017
at the DOWNTOWN ALLEN COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

from 6:30 - 8:30 pm

The October program will be featuring artist and FWAG member,

Jon Detweiler.

Jon will demonstrate how he achieves his unique painting style with the use of oil sticks, which are not to be confused with oil pastels. See page 2 for details.

Jon Detweiler

Jon Detweiler grew up in the Midwest, before moving to Montana. In 1994, he earned a bachelor's degree in Journalism from the University of Montana. After spending time in Asia and Latin America, Jon's work as a photojournalist took him and his wife Donna to Seattle, Washington. Eventually, the dream to train as an artist led Jon and his family to Fort Wayne, Indiana, where he graduated in 2012 from the University of St. Francis' School of Creative Arts, with a Master's Degree in Studio Art. After spending two years in Europe, Jon returned to Fort Wayne and the USF School of Creative Arts, where he now works as the studio technician in ceramics, sculpture, and theatrical set design.

Artist Statement

"My love for the natural world has equipped me to see fine art in very ordinary scenes. As a Seer of the Ordinary, I create original translations of very familiar settings. By exploiting nature's color, contrast and design, I invite viewers to reconnect emotionally with the place they call home".

A Renaissance in Roanoke

Roanoke has a beautifully restored Main Street and is a lovely town with lots of interesting buildings, streets and surrounding countryside just waiting to be painted. The paint out is being held in conjunction with A Renaissance in Roanoke Art Fair on Main Street with artwork displays, children's activities, food and a variety of entertainment going on throughout the day. There is the potential for thousands to view and purchase your work.

Schedule for the Paint Out

Have your canvas stamped on Saturday, October 14th between 8:00-9am.

- Check in at the Gallery at Joseph Decuis in downtown Roanoke.
- Please bring your canvasses or supports to be stamped. Only stamped work done on Saturday may be judged.
- Please do not sign your work for judging but your work may be framed.
- If you choose to paint one of the beautiful downtown buildings and plan to sell it, please offer it to the building owner before you offer it to the public. That could be your buyer!
- Artists must provide their own canvas and easel.

2:30pm Saturday, October 14th

Return to the Gallery at Joseph Decuis to set up your painting(s) for judging to begin. After the judging you may sell your artwork on the sidewalk. NO SALES UNTIL AFTER THE JUDGING and art work must remain on display until 4:00.

The close of the Festival is 4:00pm
